Australia's Top 100 fastest growing start-up companies have been revealed!

Flat Planet is a BRW Fast Starter company and is ranked 73rd on the 2014 list.

"We are now recognised as one of Australia's top 100 fastest growing companies. BRW cites businesses that have demonstrated significant revenue growth during the 2013-2014 financial year", says David Barlow, Co-Founder and Managing Director, Australia.

"We are delighted to receive this award which acknowledges our hard work and deep commitment to our clients", says Barlow.

Flat Planet is Australia's leading virtual talent company that provides reliable and trusted offshore staffing solutions for Australia entrepreneurial and mid-market organisations.

"We hire, house and performance manage highly skilled and experienced staff from our world class office in Makati, the financial district of the Philippines. Many clients prefer to partner with us because they know we are highly professional and reliable", Barlow explains further.
